Counts every Sunday and every second Saturday as off, as the notification does for state offices. Uses only the holidays above.

Good to know

- On a Sunday. The list also names Independence Day (15 August); Milad-un-Nabi (15 August). These fall on a Sunday, so they are not counted here.
- The dates come from unofficial calendar sites, and several of those only publish automatic estimates.
- Eid, Muharram and Milad-un-Nabi depend on the moon and can move by a day. Hindu festivals can also shift when the state announces its own dates.
- Left out because no two lists agree on a date yet: Bhogi (13 or 14 January), Vara Lakshmi Vratham (only one list shows it). The dates for these are awaited.
- Independence Day and Milad-un-Nabi fall on Sunday 15 August 2027. Durgashtami (7 October) rests on one list and the central order.
- Holi is on 23 March, as in the Central Government's 2027 order. Some calendars show 22 March, so the date can differ by a day.
- Optional holidays. Employees may take up to five optional holidays from a list in the state order. The 2027 optional list has not been published.
- Source difference. Makara Sankranti: 15 January (officeholidays, qppstudio, PublicHolidays.in) vs 14 January (Hyring, CalendarLabs). Chose 15 January. The central order lists Pongal on 15 January. Kanuma on 16 January is shown by four lists.
- Source difference. Ugadi: 7 April (officeholidays, qppstudio, Hyring, central order) vs 8 April (CalendarLabs, PublicHolidays.in). Chose 7 April.
- Source difference. Eid-ul-Fitr: 10 March (qppstudio, Hyring, CalendarLabs, PublicHolidays.in, central order) vs 9 March (officeholidays). Chose 10 March.
- Festivals tied to the moon, such as the Eid festivals and Muharram, can move by a day. Any change is announced at short notice.
