Good to know

- On a Sunday. The list also names Independence Day (15 August); Milad-un-Nabi / Id-e-Milad (15 August); Guru Nanak Jayanti (14 November). These fall on a Sunday, so they are not counted here.
- The holidays follow the 2026 Jharkhand gazette. Dates come from published 2027 calendars. Many of those are automated estimates, not government notices.
- Left out because no two lists agree on a 2027 date yet: Sohrai and Sohrai Khuntav, Holika Dahan, Basant Panchami, Govardhan Puja, Bhaiya Dooj, the second Karma Puja day, the Chhath morning arghya day, Navratra Kalash Sthapana and Maha Saptami. We will add them when the state notifies.
- Hul Diwas, World Adivasi Day, Vishwakarma Puja and Jharkhand Foundation Day fall on the same date every year, so they are carried over from 2026.
- Buddha Purnima is shown without the Pandit Raghunath Murmu anniversary, which the 2026 gazette joined to it. Whether the two coincide in 2027 is not yet known.
- Dates for Eid, Muharram and Milad-un-Nabi depend on the moon and can move by a day.
- Holi is on 23 March, as in the Central Government's 2027 order. Some calendars show 22 March, so the date can differ by a day.
- Saturdays. We could not confirm which Saturdays are off for state offices, so only Sundays are counted as weekly offs.
- Source difference. Maha Navami and Vijayadashami: Office Holidays, Hyring and the Centre put Dussehra on 9 October. CalendarLabs and Public Holidays India put Vijayadashami on Sunday 10 October. We used one combined day, 9 October, as the 2026 gazette did.
- Source difference. Maha Ashtami: CalendarLabs and Public Holidays India give 8 October. The Centre lists Mahashtami on 7 October. We used 8 October.
- Source difference. Muharram: 16 June in Office Holidays, Q++Studio and the Centre; 15 June in CalendarLabs and Public Holidays India. We used 16 June.
- Festivals tied to the moon, such as the Eid festivals and Muharram, can move by a day. Any change is announced at short notice.
