Long weekends in 2027

None this year with the weekly offs counted above.

> Counts every Sunday as off. Saturday holidays in the list are counted as off too. Uses only the holidays above.

Good to know

- On a Sunday. The list also names Nauroz (21 March); Independence Day (15 August); Eid-i-Milad-ul-Nabi (15 August); Guru Nanak Dev Ji's Birthday (14 November). These fall on a Sunday, so they are not counted here.
- The holidays follow the 2026 Ladakh order. Only three published lists cover Ladakh for 2027, and they are automated estimates, not government notices.
- Losar is left out. The 2026 order gave Losar in December, but the 2027 lists show the Tibetan new year in February, so the Ladakh date is still awaited.
- Local holidays for Leh and Kargil, such as Hemis Tsechu and Eid-e-Ghadeer, are not part of this list.
- Dates for Eid, Muharram and Milad-un-Nabi depend on the moon and can move by a day.
- Holi is on 23 March, as in the Central Government's 2027 order. Some calendars show 22 March, so the date can differ by a day.
- Saturdays. We could not confirm which Saturdays are off for state offices, so only Sundays are counted as weekly offs.
- Source difference. Dussehra: Hyring and the Centre give Saturday 9 October. CalendarLabs gives Sunday 10 October. We used 9 October.

- Source difference. Eid-ul-Fitr: Q++Studio, CalendarLabs and the Centre give 10 March. Hyring gives 9 March. We used 10 March.
- Source difference. Ashoora: Q++Studio and the Centre give 16 June. CalendarLabs gives 6 June, which is the start of Muharram. We used 16 June.
- Festivals tied to the moon, such as the Eid festivals and Muharram, can move by a day. Any change is announced at short notice.
