Long weekends in 2027

None this year with the weekly offs counted above.

> Counts every Sunday as off. Saturday holidays in the list are counted as off too. Uses only the holidays above.

Good to know

- On a Sunday. The list also names Independence Day / Naoroz (15 August); Milad-un-Nabi or Id-e-Milad (15 August); Onam (12 September); Dussehra (Vijay Dashmi) (10 October); Guru Nanak's Birthday (14 November). These fall on a Sunday, so they are not counted here.
- The holidays follow the 2026 Lakshadweep notification. Dates come from published 2027 calendars. Many of those are automated estimates, not government notices.
- The 2026 notification joined Pongal to Makar Sankranti. The Centre lists Pongal on 15 January, one day after Makar Sankranti, so the state may use either day.
- Dates for Eid, Muharram and Milad-un-Nabi depend on the moon and can move by a day.
- Holi is on 23 March, as in the Central Government's 2027 order. Some calendars show 22 March, so the date can differ by a day.

- Saturdays. We could not confirm which Saturdays are off for state offices, so only Sundays are counted as weekly offs.
- Source difference. Dussehra: CalendarLabs and Public Holidays India give Sunday 10 October. The Centre gives 9 October. We used 10 October.
- Source difference. Muharram: Q++Studio and the Centre give 16 June. CalendarLabs and Public Holidays India give 15 June. We used 16 June.
- Source difference. Id-ul-Fitr: 10 March in four sources; Hyring gives 9 March. We used 10 March.
- Festivals tied to the moon, such as the Eid festivals and Muharram, can move by a day. Any change is announced at short notice.
