Long weekends in 2027

None this year with the weekly offs counted above.

> Counts every Sunday as off. Saturday holidays in the list are counted as off too. Uses only the holidays above.

Good to know

- On a Sunday. The list also names Independence Day (15 August); Milad-un-Nabi (15 August); Guru Nanak Jayanti (14 November). These fall on a Sunday, so they are not counted here.
- The holidays follow the 2026 Madhya Pradesh notification. Dates come from published 2027 calendars. Many of those are automated estimates, not government notices.
- Four festival holidays from the 2026 list are left out because no two lists agree on a 2027 date yet: Chaiti Chand, Maharana Pratap and Chhatrasal Jayanti, Ganesh Chaturthi and Govardhan Puja. We will add them when the state notifies.
- Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas is on 15 November every year, so it is carried over from 2026.
- Dates for Eid, Muharram and Milad-un-Nabi depend on the moon and can move by a day.
- Holi is on 23 March, as in the Central Government's 2027 order. Some calendars show 22 March, so the date can differ by a day.
- Optional holidays. Employees choose a few optional holidays from a separate list in 2026. No 2027 optional list has been published.
- Saturdays. We could not confirm which Saturdays are off for state offices, so only Sundays are counted as weekly offs.
- Source difference. Dussehra: Office Holidays, Hyring and the Centre give Saturday 9 October. CalendarLabs and Public Holidays India give Sunday 10 October. We used 9 October.
- Source difference. Muharram: 16 June in Office Holidays, Q++Studio and the Centre; 15 June in CalendarLabs and Public Holidays India. We used 16 June.
- Source difference. Id-ul-Fitr: 10 March in four lists and the Centre; Office Holidays gives 9 March. We used 10 March.
- Festivals tied to the moon, such as the Eid festivals and Muharram, can move by a day. Any change is announced at short notice.
