Counts every Saturday and Sunday as off and assumes a five-day working week. Uses only the holidays above.

Good to know

- On a Sunday. The list also names Independence Day (15 August); Parsi New Year (Shahenshahi) (15 August); Id-E-Milad (15 August); Guru Nanak Jayanti (14 November). These fall on a Sunday, so they are not counted here.
- The holidays follow the 2026 Maharashtra list. Dates come from published 2027 calendars. Many of those are automated estimates, not government notices.
- Bali Pratipada (the day after Diwali) is left out. Maharashtra gave it as a holiday in 2026, but no two lists agree on its 2027 date yet.
- Dates for Eid, Muharram and Milad-un-Nabi depend on the moon and can move by a day.
- Holi is on 23 March, as in the Central Government's 2027 order. Some calendars show 22 March, so the date can differ by a day.
- Source difference. Dasara: Office Holidays, Hyring and the Centre give Saturday 9 October. CalendarLabs and Public Holidays India give Sunday 10 October. We used 9 October.
- Source difference. Ramzan-Id: 10 March in four lists and the Centre; Office Holidays gives 9 March. We used 10 March.
- Source difference. Gudhi Padwa: 7 April in Office Holidays, Q++Studio, Hyring and the Centre; 8 April in Public Holidays India. We used 7 April.
- Festivals tied to the moon, such as the Eid festivals and Muharram, can move by a day. Any change is announced at short notice.
