Long weekends in 2027

None this year with the weekly offs counted above.

> Counts every Sunday as off. Saturday holidays in the list are counted as off too. Uses only the holidays above.

Good to know

- On a Sunday. The list also names Easter Sunday (28 March); Independence Day (15 August); Milad-un-Nabi (15 August); Guru Nanak Jayanti (14 November). These fall on a Sunday, so they are not counted here.
- Nagaland has not yet issued its 2027 holiday notification. This list will be replaced when it does.
- The 2026 Nagaland list was itself put together from published copies, because the Home Department notification could not be found. This 2027 list is built on top of it, so treat it as a starting point and confirm with your office circular.
- Independence Day and Milad-un-Nabi (15 August), Guru Nanak Jayanti (14 November) and Easter Sunday (28 March) fall on a Sunday.
- Id-ul-Fitr, Bakrid and Milad-un-Nabi depend on the moon and can move by a day.
- Statehood Day (1 December) was left out by some 2026 copies. Two 2027 lists include it, so it is shown here.
- Easter Sunday follows the Church calendar and appears only in the Central Government list.

- The list of restricted holidays (tribal festivals) is not known.
- Holi is on 23 March, as in the Central Government's 2027 order. Some calendars show 22 March, so the date can differ by a day.
- Saturdays. We could not confirm which Saturdays are off for state offices, so only Sundays are counted as weekly offs.
- Source difference. Dussehra: 9 October is used (Hyring and the Central Government order). CalendarLabs shows 10 October.
- Source difference. Milad-un-Nabi: all lists and the Central Government order agree on 15 August. In 2026 the lists split between 25 and 26 August.
- Festivals tied to the moon, such as the Eid festivals and Muharram, can move by a day. Any change is announced at short notice.
