Long weekends in 2027

None this year with the weekly offs counted above.

> Counts every Sunday and every second Saturday as off, as the notification does for state offices. Uses only the holidays above.

Good to know

- On a Sunday. The list also names Independence Day (15 August); Eid Miladun Nabi (15 August); Kartika Purnima, Guru Nanak's Jayanthi (14 November); Following Day of Christmas (Boxing Day) (26 December). These fall on a Sunday, so they are not counted here.

- It is built from published 2027 calendars. Most of these are automated estimates, not government orders. We use a date only when at least two published lists agree, and we compare festival dates with the Central Government order for 2027.
- This page will be replaced with the official dates as soon as the state notifies them.
- Festivals that follow the moon (Eid, Muharram, Milad) can move by a day.
- Bhogi and Sankranti are left out. Published lists split between 14 and 15 January, so the date is awaited.
- Saddula Bathukamma, the day after Vijaya Dasami and the day after Ramzan are left out. No published list gives a date for them. They were holidays in 2026 and are likely to return.
- Muharram is shown as Wednesday 16 June, the Central Government date. Two lists give 15 June.
- Vijaya Dasami (9 October), Ugadi (7 April) and Eid (10 March) follow the Central Government dates, which most lists match.
- Boxing Day (26 December) is a Sunday. It is listed because two lists show it and it was a holiday in 2026.
- The 2026 order says these holidays do not automatically apply to industrial establishments, public undertakings, public works departments or educational institutions.
- Holi is on 23 March, as in the Central Government's 2027 order. Some calendars show 22 March, so the date can differ by a day.
- Optional holidays. Optional or restricted holidays are not part of this list.
- Source difference. Muharram: 15 June (PublicHolidays.in, CalendarLabs) vs 16 June (OfficeHolidays, Central order). Two against two, so the Central date was used.
- Source difference. Ugadi: 7 April (OfficeHolidays, Hyring, Central order) vs 8 April (PublicHolidays.in, CalendarLabs). Used 7 April.
- Source difference. Vijaya Dasami: 9 October (OfficeHolidays, Hyring, Central order) vs 10 October (PublicHolidays.in, CalendarLabs). Used 9 October.
- Festivals tied to the moon, such as the Eid festivals and Muharram, can move by a day. Any change is announced at short notice.
