Counts every Sunday as off. Saturday holidays in the list are counted as off too. Uses only the holidays above.

Good to know

- On a Sunday. The list also names Independence Day (15 August); Eid-e-Milad / Milad-un-Nabi (Barawafat) (15 August); Guru Nanak Jayanti (14 November). These fall on a Sunday, so they are not counted here.
- It is built from published 2027 calendars. Most of these are automated estimates, not government orders. We use a date only when at least two published lists agree, and we compare festival dates with the Central Government order for 2027.
- This page will be replaced with the official dates as soon as the state notifies them.
- Festivals that follow the moon (Eid, Muharram, Milad) can move by a day.
- Harela and Igas-Bagwal are left out. Published lists do not agree on a date for Harela (16 or 17 July), and none gives Igas-Bagwal.
- Holika Dahan is left out. One list gives 21 March and the Central Government order gives 22 March.
- Dussehra is shown as Saturday 9 October. Two lists give 10 October.
- Maha Shivratri is a Sunday holiday in 2026. In 2027 it falls on a Saturday, so it is in the main list.
- Independence Day, Eid-e-Milad and Guru Nanak Jayanti fall on a Sunday.
- Mahavir Jayanti and Muharram rest on one calendar list plus the Central Government order, so check them first when the official list comes out.
- The 2026 notification lists these as general holidays. Holidays for the Secretariat and five-day-week offices can differ.
- Holi is on 23 March, as in the Central Government's 2027 order. Some calendars show 22 March, so the date can differ by a day.
- Optional holidays. Optional or restricted holidays are not part of this list.
- Saturdays. We could not confirm which Saturdays are off for state offices, so only Sundays are counted as weekly offs.
- Source difference. Dussehra: 9 October (OfficeHolidays, Hyring, Central order) vs 10 October (PublicHolidays.in, CalendarLabs). Used 9 October.
- Source difference. Muharram: 16 June (OfficeHolidays, Central order) vs 6 June (CalendarLabs, looks wrong). Used 16 June.
- Source difference. Mahavir Jayanti: 18 April (OfficeHolidays) vs 19 April (CalendarLabs, Central order). Used 19 April.
- Festivals tied to the moon, such as the Eid festivals and Muharram, can move by a day. Any change is announced at short notice.
